

The First ILLS International Webinar Scientific Program

Day 1, 12th December 2020 from 2pm-4pm (CET)

Check your time zone on www.thetimezoneconverter.com

Indications and challenges

Welcome and introduction (Prof. Go WAKABAYASHI)

Laparoscopic treatment of benign liver diseases: Indications and results - Prof. Paulo HERMAN, Brazil

Laparoscopic and robotic left lateral donor hepatectomy: Just a matter of choice - Prof. Roberto TROISI, Italy

Laparoscopic Anatomical Resection for both HCC and CRLMs: technique and significance

Prof. Go WAKABAYASHI, Japan

Towards a safe liver resection, lessons learned - Prof. Catherine TEH, Philippine

Bleeding and complications in laparoscopic liver surgery - Prof. Mo ABU HILAL, Italy

Closure and remarks

Day 2, 13th December 2020 from 2pm-4pm (CET)

Check your time zone on www.thetimezoneconverter.com

Techniques and benefits of laparoscopic liver surgery

Welcome and introduction (Prof. Go WAKABAYASHI)

Looking forward ILLS 2021 3rd World Congress Virtual Meeting: You don't want to miss it!

Prof. David GELLER, USA

Laparoscopic liver resection in difficult locations - Prof. Ho-Seong HAN, Korea

Laparoscopic right hepatectomy: How I do it - Prof. Daniel CHERQUI, France

Differential benefit of laparoscopic versus open liver resection: When the minimally invasive approach is really needed? Prof. Luca ALDRIGHETTI, Italy

Minimally Invasive liver surgery in the era of regional preoperative therapies - Prof. Horacio ASBUN, USA

Minimally invasive liver surgery in the era of Robotic technology - Prof. Chung Ngai TANG, Hong Kong

Closure and remarks